

Ethical Global Health Engagement: The Story of Healing Across the Divides

Scan to register

Objectives

- Define and contrast the tenets of peace through health and peace building through health.
- Review and discuss a case study: "Peace Building through Health in the Israeli- Palestinian conflict- the story of Healing Across the Divides".
- Discuss the ethical issues of global health engagement e.g. operating outside the home country; engaging in an ever worsening conflict and other issues.

Thursday, June 22, 2023

Noon - 1 p.m.

Via WebEx

click here to register

Registration is required to reserve a lunch.
Deadline to reserve a lunch is June 20, 2023

Norbert Goldfield, M.D., is CEO of Healing Across the Divides and CEO of a bipartisan venture Ask Nurses and Doctors. His latest book is "Peace Building through Women's Health: Psychoanalytic, Sociopsychological, and Community Perspectives on the Israeli-Palestinian Conflict". His forthcoming is tentatively entitled: "Public Health, Public Trust and American Fragility in a Pandemic Era: The Critical Role of Health Professionals (Routledge)". He is a practicing internist.

Accreditation:

Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center El Paso Paul L. Foster School of Medicine is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

Credit Designation:

The Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center El Paso Paul L. Foster School of Medicine designates this live activity for a maximum of 1 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit". Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Disclosure Policy:

Norbert Goldfield, M.D., and the planners for this educational activity have no relevant financial relationships to disclose with ineligible companies whose primary business is producing, marketing, selling, reselling or distributing health care products used by or on patients.

•TTUHSC El Paso reserves the right to cancel this activity in the event of unforeseen or extenuating circumstances.
•Persons with disabilities who need auxiliary aids or services may call the Office of CME at 915-215-4880 to arrange accommodation. All members of the planning committee for this series have signed disclosures stating no relevant financial relationships exist with any industry support companies.

For more information, email DiversityInclusionGlobalHealth@ttuhsc.edu.