SYNOPSIS

Amal and Mustafa have shared a long life together in northern Iraq. When Amal decides to finally renovate their home after a decade of war, Mustafa retreats to the garden, where he encounters the curious gaze of his grand-niece and her camera. An intimate snapshot of life at the boundary of destruction and renewal, AMAL'S GARDEN is the unexpected portrait of one Turkmen couple moving forward in a new Iraq, where, even in the stillness of night, life is blooming. (32 min, HD, Turkmen/Arabic with English subtitles. 2012)

The screening will be preceded by a short, introductory talk delivered by Lahib Jaddo, Associate Professor, TTU College of Architecture.
