Christian Relief Fund

Monday, March 11
6:00—8:00 pm
ACB 110

Free dinner will be provided to the first 40 attendees!

Christian Relief Fund (CRF) is a non-profit relief organization based in Amarillo, Texas that focuses on rescuing orphans and vulnerable children from poverty. CRF aims to provide holistic care for the needs of children in poverty, including food, clean water, education, spiritual training, healthcare and disaster relief. CRF has a 4/4 rating with Charity Navigator and works in more than 30 countries world-wide. Their programs include child sponsorship, family feeding, support for schools, healthcare clinics, and emergency relief.

During this presentation, Mr. Jones will focus on the inherent issues and obstacles to opening and operating a clinic in a developing country and ways to overcome these obstacles.

You can find more information about Mr. Jones and CRF, including ways to get involved, on the CRF website.

This presentation is being hosted by the SOM Introduction to Global Health course and the Office of International Affairs.
