

CIMA Lectures on World Health featuring Candice Allen Paul L. Foster SOM Class of 2012

Malnutrition in Ethiopia

Wednesday, March 3
12:00 noon CST
Room ACB 120

Candice Allen is a fourth year medical student at the Paul L. Foster School of Medicine in El Paso. In November 2009 she participated in an international elective to Ethiopia. While there she collected anthropometric data on children in the area in order to assess the prevalence of malnutrition in Ethiopia. She will discuss the findings of this data during her presentation.

Candice is originally from South Africa and has participated in many medical mission trips to areas in South America as well as Africa. She has a special interest in medicine in Africa and plans on participating in many future international trips to third world nations.
